

SUMMER READING LIST

Students Entering 3rd Grade

Students in 3rd Grade will be expected to read independently for 25 to 30 minutes. Help your child stay on track for September by reading all summer long!

Here are some helpful hints to encourage reading over the summer months and avoid the "summer slide":

- Set aside time each day to read
- Read to your child
- Show your child that reading is important and make it a priority!
- Visit the Haworth Public Library with your child and take part in the Summer Reading Programs available there
- Encourage your child to read on the appropriate level to support comprehension of the text

Suggested books are listed on the following pages.*
*You may find some of these books more suitable for your child than others. Please encourage your child to read books that are of high interest to them.

Also attached is a Summer Reading Log. Please complete by listing all the books read over the summer months. Include the date, title and author and the level, if known.

Return your log to your teacher on Thursday, September 5th
