

Lee Bacon

Author Visit to Haworth School

Thursday, May 22

About the New Book

From the moment Joshua Dread receives an invitation to Gyfted & Talented, the mysterious program for kids with superpowers, his plans for a normal summer turn upside down. Evil maniac Phineas Vex is still alive—and he wants Joshua dead. So if G&T can help prepare Joshua for battle, he's all in.

The truth is that Joshua and his friends have been chosen to form the greatest superhero team of all time. That is, if they make it through G&T's rigorous training.

Suddenly Joshua is thrust into the media spotlight, and it's not as glamorous as people think. And what will happen if his supervillain parents find out that the new celebrity superhero is . . . Joshua?

We are delighted to announce that children's author Lee Bacon will visit Haworth School on Thursday, May 22 to discuss the books in his Joshua Dread series. Mr. Bacon will be speaking to students in grades 5 and 6 .

An author visit is a wonderful opportunity for young readers to meet the creators of the books they read, and we have arranged for both students and teachers to purchase autographed copies of their books. Please consider extending this learning experience through the purchase of an autographed book.

About the Author

Lee grew up in College Station, TX and first began writing in elementary school. He would write stories and poems with the intention of making his classmates laugh. Twenty years later, he used this same technique to write his first kid's book.

Over the years, he's worked a lot of different jobs—farm laborer, art gallery assistant, bartender, assistant literary agent—before settling on the two jobs that he currently holds: Writer and freelance translator. He now lives in Brooklyn with his wife and two cats.

A percentage of book sales will benefit Haworth School

The order deadline is Friday, May 2

This event has been arranged through the courtesy of Books, Bytes & Beyond, the independent children's only book seller in Glen Rock specializing in the educational market & author events.