

Week of Respect

October 4th-8th, 2021

During the Week of Respect we encourage all Haworth students and staff to participate in the spirit week to focus on the ways we can show respect to ourselves and others. We encourage parents and staff to speak to children throughout the week about the themes to help them understand the meaning behind each day.

Monday: Pajama Day

Get comfortable with Respect!

We start off our spirit week wearing our pajamas to school to show we are comfortable with treating others with respect and kindness.

Pajamas also represent our zero tolerance policy for bullying and unkind behavior. Celebrate respect and put mean behavior to bed!

Tuesday: Tie Dye/Colorful Day

What are your true colors?

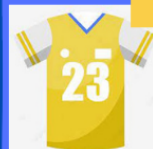

On Tuesday, wear tie dye or colorful clothes to show how you respect who you are inside - by honoring your "true colors".

Today we spend time focusing on how we are all different, unique, and beautiful in our own way!

Wednesday: Team Day

"Teamwork makes the dream work!"

On Wednesday, wear your favorite team jersey, sportswear, or uniform to show how you are a "team player"!

We show respect to others when we work together toward a common goal. Teamwork includes listening to others, compromise, sharing ideas, and growing together.

Thursday: Red, White, and Blue Day

Stand up for yourself and others.

Today we wear red, white, and blue to show we are UNITED against bullying and disrespectful behavior. Stand up for yourself and treat others how you want to be treated.

Friday: School Spirit Day

Let's hear it for School Spirit!

We end our Respect spirit week by wearing our school colors/gear. Let's always show that Haworth has (HEART) Honesty, Empathy, Academic Rigor, RESPECT, and Teamwork!
