TIME, PLACE, NOTIFICATION OF MEETINGS

The Haworth Board of Education shall publish a special notice 10 days in advance of each board of education meeting describing the purpose of the meeting, listing the items to be discussed and indicating the availability of the material relative to such items. The board of education shall meet twice a month at 8 P.M.

Regular meetings of the board of education shall be held on dates and at times and places determined by the board at its annual organization meeting. Those individuals interested in attending a board meeting may refer to the monthly calendar, the outside bulletin board, Haworth Hall, the Public Library and the local newspapers. Special meetings shall be called by the board secretary at the request of the president or upon a petition signed by a majority of the board members, and shall commence no later than 8 p.m. At no time will the board meet unless a quorum of the full membership is present at the meeting.

The Board shall conduct its meetings in accordance with the Open Public Meetings Act.

Adequate Notice

Adequate notice shall be given for all regular and special meetings. Adequate notice for regular meetings shall be in accordance with the annual notice provisions set forth below. Adequate notice for special meetings generally means written advance notice of at least 48 hours, giving the time, date and location, and, to the extent known, the agenda of the meeting. The notice must state whether formal action may or may not be taken at the meeting. The notice must be:

- A. Prominently posted in at least one public place reserved for such announcements;
- B. Communicated to at least two newspapers designated by the board because they have the greatest likelihood of informing the board's public; and
- C. Filed with the clerk of the municipality.

The board of education may hold an emergency meeting without providing adequate public notice if:

- A. Three-quarters of the members present vote to do so; and
- B. The meeting is required to deal with matters of such urgency and importance that delay would be likely to result in substantial harm to the public interest; and
- C. The meeting will be limited to discussion of and action on these matters; and
- D. Adequate notice of such meeting is provided as soon as possible following the calling of such meeting; and
- E. One of the following:
  - 1. Either the board could not reasonably have foreseen the need for such meeting at a time when adequate notice could have been provided; or
  - 2. The need could have been foreseen in time but the board failed to give adequate notice.

TIME, PLACE, NOTIFICATION OF MEETINGS (continued)Announcement of Adequate Notice/Statement of Compliance

At the beginning of every meeting, the presiding officer must announce that adequate notice of the meeting was provided and must specify the time, place and manner in which the notice was provided. However, if adequate notice was not provided, the presiding officer must say so, and in addition, must state:

- A. The nature of the matter of urgency or importance for which the meeting without adequate notice was called; and
- B. The nature of the substantial harm to the public interest likely to result from a delay in holding the meeting; and
- C. That the meeting will be limited to discussion of and action on such matters of urgency and importance; and
- D. The time, place, and manner in which some notice of the meeting was provided; and
- E. Either of the following:
  - 1. That the need for such meeting could not reasonably have been foreseen at a time when adequate notice could have been provided, and why this was so; or
  - 2. That such need could reasonably have been foreseen in time for adequate notice, but nevertheless such notice was not provided, and the reasons why.

Annual Notice

Annual notice of the year's regular meeting schedule must be posted publicly and sent to at least two newspapers and the municipal clerk within seven days following the annual organization meeting. Parents will be notified in an appropriate manner, as well. This notice should contain the location of each meeting to the extent it is known as well as the time and date.

If the schedule is revised at all, notice must be given within seven days of the revision.

The annual schedule serves as sufficient notice of any regularly scheduled meeting as long as it contains the proper date and location. If most meetings are on a regularly scheduled basis, whether they are formal sessions or study sessions, the notice requirement can be largely met through the once-a-year schedule.

Both the annual schedule of meetings, any revisions to that schedule, and notices of any additional meetings must be sent to any person upon request and upon prepayment of a sum set by the board. Requests to be on the mailing list for notices can be made on an annual basis and are renewable each reorganization meeting.

Adjournment

The board may at any time recess or adjourn to an adjourned meeting at a specified date and place. The adjourned meeting shall take up its business at the point in the agenda where the motion to adjourn was acted upon.

Meeting Cancellation

When a majority of the board is unable to attend a meeting, a meeting may be cancelled by the board secretary upon the request of the board president. All board members shall receive notice of such cancellation as expeditiously as possible. Notice of meeting cancellation shall be made to local municipal authorities and the media.
